

Nunawading Cricket Club - Round 8

Welcome to season 2011 to 2012

PRESIDENTS REPORT

After Round 9 was completed last week, it appears we may only have one side representing Nunawading in the Finals Series this season.

Over the week I have been reflecting on the season and determined that throughout the year we have had many personal performance highlights, unfortunately it appears this has not translated to consistent team performances across the board.

I am really disappointed that my team D Grade cannot make the finals. Even at 51 years of age, the idea of competing for a flag still drives me. I am sure many from other Grades feel the same way.

We have 2 games left and I will be competing as hard as always to secure victory for Nunawading.

I hope you all compete as hard.

It would be great to beat 2 teams who are going to play Finals.

We have an important event on Saturday, 18 February. It is the Past Players Day. This is a great opportunity to reunite with old team mates, meet club legends, and share old cricket stories. The catches are more spectacular when recounting past achievements. Current Players, please try and attend this great evening.

Special thanks to Stu Hamilton for his work (hard work again) co-ordinating the Sportsman's Night.

It was well attended, well received and David Schwarz spoke in an amazing and honest manner. It was also good to see the room full of people.

In closing I wish you all good cricket for the next month. Some of us will be in the esky 11/22/33 afterwards.

Regards

Greg Clark

AT THE BAR

With the season coming towards the end it is good to see a lot of people hanging around the club and having a few beers. It was especially good to see the 5s around the club on Saturday supporting the 2s and 3s. The 5s had the bye but managed to get together 24 players for an intra club twenty20 match. If you haven't heard already (which would be a surprise) Dylan's team won with the captain himself dragging the team across the line with a fine batting performance.

Speaking of fine performances around the club a big congratulations and thanks must go to Stu Hamilton for organising the Sportsman's night last Saturday. The club was full of people enjoying a few beers and hanging on every word that former Australian fast bowler Rodney Hogg and former Melbourne forward David Schwarz had to say. Rodney Hogg arrived early and was happy to mingle with the nuna boys at the bar and I'm sure he is now a better bowler after listening to Scotty O's advice on how to bowl. Rodney had the audience laughing about stories from his suburban, domestic and international cricket games with the highlight being the vicious ball that Michael Holding bowled him with (look it up on YouTube). While David Schwarz happily entertained a table of Greg and Mitch Clark, Fairweather, Corka and Ro. Fairweather must have made quite an impression on the Ox as he was mentioned a few times during the Ox's speech and he was even keen to see the photos of Fairweather spewing into a pint glass on last year's trip. The Ox's speech was both funny when he was talking about some of the big nights out he had when he was winning loads of money at the track but his talk also had a serious side when he was talking about the pain his gambling problem caused not only to himself but also family and friends. All in all the function was a success and everyone had a great night.

On a different note Hubble is still yet to get any runs on the scoreboard in Australia and this is despite the best attempts by Lordy and Monty. The other week Lordy invited Hubble and Monty to come along to a 21st in Richmond. Despite all the available young and drunk talent around the bar Hubble thought it would be a better idea to try and pick up one of the oldest people at the 21st. He might say she was 40 but she was definitely closer to 50 if not 60. Hubble had his A game going on the dance floor to attract her attention and finally managed to separate her from all the other old people at the 21st. However the real fun didn't begin to Hubble got her to the couches at the back of the bar and started making out with her. Then he started to mount her on the couch much to the amusement of Monty, Lordy and Lordy's sister, who got stuck into the boys for not capturing the moment on their camera phones. You knew it was funny as soon as the dj stopped djing to find out what all the laughter was about then joined in the laughing/mocking of Hubble. And of course Hubble has been fined for his choice of women.

Fines are coming along nicely we now have $168 collected and a full white board to go. Besides from Hubble some of the other fines of the week are have come from Lordy for saying "he is a good person on the inside", while Gareth was fined for saying "I have a weak gag reflex". While Willy D was fined for thinking he was Sharapova while bowling the other week. And in disappointing news we didn't get to fine Scotty O for wearing a glove while bowling/fielding cause he didn't want to wear it in the end so we instead fined him for bowling 3 front foot no balls.

Did You Know?

The share markets here and overseas have the greatest impact on your superannuation returns. It has been a trying year and some negative returns have been seen. But occasional bouts of negative returns are the price we have to pay for the higher returns growth assets provide over the time. Switching to cash may make sleeping at night easier when markets are falling, but it's likely to ensure lower long term returns. The key is to adopt an appropriate long term strategy and stick to it!

COACHING CORNER

BATTING - The Cut Shot.

The cut requires the batsman to make a cutting movement with his bat across the body. The shot is also known as 'the square cut' because the batsman stands perpendicular to the bowler's delivery of the ball. It is a particularly popular choice with left-handed batsmen because a right-hand bowler tends to cause the ball to angle slightly away from the batsman's body, making the cut easier to perform.

When played correctly, the cut enables the batsman to make an extremely powerful shot allowing him to gain a large number of runs, but it can be technically difficult to master. If hit too hard, there is a high chance that the ball will be caught by a close fielder.

Below are the three steps to a successful cut:

1. Move the back foot towards the stumps and across, to be in line with the bowler's delivery. Take the bat back across the shoulder whilst moving the front shoulder (that nearest the bowler) towards the 'off side'. The 'off side' is the right half of the pitch for a right-handed batsman and the left half of the pitch for the left-handed batsman.
2. Move the bat down and across the body, hitting the ball only once the arm is fully extended. The head should be kept still during the shot and the wrists rolled forward keeping the ball as close to the ground as possible to avoid being caught out.

Continue to move the arm across the front shoulder and behind the head. The front shoulder is the one opposite to the batting hand. The batsman's weight should be kept on the back foot during the follow through.

|--------------|----|---------------|------|
| Mick McKay   | 59 | Karan Chandra | 5/40 |
| Dave Cowell  | 48 | Scott O'Neill | 2/45 |
| Rohan Graham | 44 | Will Dalton   | 2/51 |

The boys headed into to the toughest challenge of the season and what would determine the Nuna bous true position in the ladder.

Winning the toss, Nuna boys headed into to bat, against some of the most consistent bowling ever faced this season. Despite this Corey and Cowelly broke down any early hopes of an early wicket, posting 30 runs, setting up the innings for the entire day. Batting performances went well. Despite early wickets of Larkins and Groft, Dave Cowell continued to steer the ship, eventually falling at a total score of 4/124.

With a bounce in their step, Koonung, after taking another early wicket, felt confident they would end the Nuna innings early, however the Nuna boys had a different version of the match outcome in mind.

Through great steady batting, Rohan and Karan turned the match into Nuna's control. This was joined by Mick McKay and Willy D whom commenced tearing apart the opposition bowling line up and posting a defendable total of 230 runs.

In the field, the Nuna boys continued with controlling the game. Opening with McKay and O'Neill, the two set about putting the pressure onto the opening batsmen from ball one.

This was soon joined by Karan, who maintained the pressure across all his spells finishing on 5/40.

This was supported by Willy D taking 2/51 and Scotty O 2/45.

Overall, all bowlers performed beautifully, delivering consistent pressure ball after ball onto the bats, forcing the batsmen to play the game on Nuna's terms not the reverse.

Having maintaining positive pressure, the good guys got the win, getting Koonung all out for 208 and securing a spot in the finals.

MOM Karan Chandra for his control with bat and ball, along with reflex catch at point to inspire the ages.

Special Mention also to the return of Scotty O, following a hand injury in Round 7.

It was a must win game. We lost yet again to a team full of juniors.

The batting was good the first week with all of the middle and lower order helping us to recover from 4 / 18 to put up a defensible score. At 7 / 85 and only 10 in their side we should have won.

For the second time another team wanted it more. We didn't bowl on the off side of the pitch ball after ball and so we don't have our destiny in our own control.

We need to rely on other teams losing two games while we win. .

We have to show with our actions over the next two games we want to play finals. If luck goes our way we may make it. Do we deserve it????? I'll wait till the last game before making that assessment. Don't feel like writing anymore.

|----------------|----|----------------|------|
| Luke Croft     | 70 | Luke Croft     | 3/49 |
| Paddy Mitchell | 55 | Mitchell Clark | 3/43 |
| Dan Smith      | 41 |                |      |

This was a critical game to win to stay in touch with the Final Four.

We bowled first again as it seems we bat much better when we know the score we are chasing.

Unfortunately it was quite hot, we were one short as I picked Glenn Turner for one day, and C Mac could not locate the ground. This meant Doncaster got off to a flyer in the first hour. Our bowlers unfortunately bowled slightly short and both sides of the wicket which gifted runs. The pick of the bowlers were Luke Croft, Mitchell Clark and Paul Bradley.

A lacklustre fielding performance saw Doncaster make 225 which on reflection I thought was achievable. We really needed to bat well and patiently to chase this score down. Not only the first hour would be important, but I would be happy with being 2-90 odd at tea. We started off in great style and early in the chase we had Doncaster on the back foot, we were 2-4 and a million miles from victory.

Paddy Mitchell and Luke Croft combined with a very good partnership to get us back on track. Paddy making another good score of 55 on the back of 82 the previous game. When play was adjourned for the tea break we were 4-122 with Luke Croft and Dan Smith both in and set.

All of a sudden it looked like we would win as our batting order was reasonable with Rod Jones coming at 8.

This is the game situation that requires practice at training. How do you bat when chasing down a score and you have almost in your sights. Unfortunately our lower order provided little support in the situation and we were left 20 odd short of victory with 11 overs still remaining.

Luke Croft, Paddy Mitchell and Dan Smith batted really well, but with no other batsman making double figures it was left to too few.

Finals now appear out of reach. It would however be great to finish on a winning note and win the last 2 games of the season.

Our team has not won two games in a row all year, I feel achieving this would have built belief in them and we may have got on a roll.

To make over 200 runs was a really good effort, our first over 200 innings of the season.

Man Of The Match

Special Mention to Paddy Mitchell for his 55

Luke Croft is Man Of The Match with a great 70 and 3 wickets with the ball
